HOME CARE & HOME NURSING SERVICES

Home Care Services, Vancouver Coastal Health (VCH)

5630 Inlet Avenue, Sechelt

Phone: (604) 741.0726

Home Care Services is under the Home & Community Care division of VCH. It is committed to promoting the well-being, dignity and independence of clients and their families and aims to supplement and complement (but not replace) care provided by individuals, families and community.

- Long Term Care Program is the single entry point to a variety of services intended to support clients in the community. This would include case management; home support; adult day care; respite and residential care. Case Managers also provide ongoing care coordination, education and referrals to non-health care related agencies.
- Shorncliffe Hospice Program provides short-term stay for symptom relief, short-term stay for hospital to home transition, respite for caregivers 1 to 2 weeks, permanent admission for care during the last several months of life. Managed by the Palliative Care Coordinator.
- Home Care Nursing Program provides care to people of any age with acute, chronic, palliative or rehabilitative health care need. Services include assessment, direct care (e.g., wound management), case management (for palliative clients), health teaching, support, coordination and referral to other community supports. Service is provided on a non-emergency basis seven days per week 8:30 am to 2:30 pm. Home Nursing Care is provided with no direct charge to the client.

- Palliative Care Program offers active, compassionate care to patients and their families when it is recognized that the illness is no longer curable. They provide supportive services that enhance dignity, independence and choice. Team members include the Palliative Care Coordinator, the client's Physician(s), Home Care Nurses, Community Health Workers, Community Rehabilitation Services, trained Hospice Volunteers and Spiritual Care.

Website: www.bcferrries.com

BC seniors enjoy free travel on most BC Ferries routes on Remembrance Day (Nov 11) and Monday through Thursday except holidays. Present your BC Gold Care Card when you arrive at the terminal. Free travel applies to the passenger fare only.

Travel Assistance Program (TAP), Ministry of Health
Contact: Obtain form from your medical professional
Website: www.health.gov.bc.ca/tapbc/tap_patient.html
TAP helps alleviate some of the transportation costs for eligible BC residents who must travel within the province for non-emergency medical specialist services not available in their own community. Obtain the form at your doctor's office, phone for a Confirmation # (toll free # on back of form), and then present your completed form at the ferry terminal. Fares can also be covered for escorts of people incapable of travelling independently for medical reasons. Your physician or nurse practitioner must indicate on the TAP form that an escort is required.

Volunteer Drivers

Home Care Services, Vancouver Coastal Health

Phone: (604) 741.0726

Volunteers will drive you to and from essential medical appointments only, locally or in Vancouver. This program is available to those who are unable to access other forms of transport such as private, public or taxi services. There is a fee for this service. One-week notice is required for all appointments. Please note this is not an emergency service.

OTHER COMMUNITY ORGANISATIONS

Sunshine Coast Community Services

Phone: (604) 885.5881

Website: www.sccss.ca

A non-profit society with over 80 professional staff and hundreds of volunteers who support a wide variety of community programming. In addition to operating the Sunshine Coast Volunteer Centre and the Food Bank for the Sechelt area, Community Services has other services which may be of interest to seniors:

- Family Support Services which assists and supports parents and grandparents in their role as caregivers, with the goal of promoting parental competency and strengthening family life
- Community-Based Victims Services (604) 885.0322, a confidential program to assist and support survivors of relationship violence
- Community Response Network, a provincial network of agencies trained to handle reports of abuse to vulnerable adults, including seniors and persons with disabilities

Community Resource Centre

5520 Trail Avenue, Sechelt

Phone: (604) 885.4088

Website: www.communityresourcecentre.info

The services of the Community Resource Centre (CRC) are designed to help in all stages of life, and the programs are constantly growing and changing depending on the needs of the community. Programs offered include: Information and referral about services available on the Sunshine

Coast in person, by telephone and through email; Assistance with filling out forms; Access Justice Pro Bono Legal Clinic (by appointment); Legal Information Program (by appointment); Financial Literacy & Skill Development courses to increase attendee's financial knowledge and money management skills; and Home Alone (a program for kids to learn how to be safe at home if they're alone). Programs under development are a Seniors Home Alone program and the Progress Plan project which will lead to a Community Plan to address financial well-being for women along the Sunshine Coast.

ACROSS THE LINES

A collaborative audio project that explores new avenues of expression across the lines of age, music, technology, and storytelling. A group of participants within Good Samaritan Christenson Village play with a variety of different musical instruments – piano, ukuleles, percussion, and more – as well as technological tools, such as iPad and iPhone applications, and the results are recorded. The music they create is being incorporated into an original score that will form the backdrop of a CD featuring spoken-word stories and quotes from the participants as they ruminate on a wide range of topics including family, friendship, love, loss, history, and life.
